TRAVEL and ACCOMODATION INFORMATION

A: Venue Location
The meeting will take place at the Holiday Inn, 1 Higher Bridge Street, Bolton, BL1 2EW, at point B on the map below. Parking is available at the venue and around the local area if required.

Walking Directions from Bolton Train Station
The venue is approximately a 10-15 minute walk (1 km) from Bolton train station (point A on the map above). As you walk up the ramp of the train station, take the exit straight ahead of you and turn right immediately after exiting. Follow Newport Street down to Victoria Square. Pass with the town hall on your left and continue to the end of Market Street. Turn right onto Corporation Street then left onto Bridge Street. Follow Bridge Street up the hill and cross St. Georges. Street. The Holiday Inn (point B) will be on your left.

By Taxi from Bolton Train Station
Follow the ramp out of the train station as above; the taxi rank is in front of the train station.
B: Getting to Bolton
Bolton is conveniently located in the centre of North West England, easily accessible from all parts of the region by road and rail and from the region’s major international airports.

By Train:
From Manchester Airport
If flying into Manchester airport, Bolton is conveniently accessible by trains which travel via Manchester, with three services per hour throughout the day. Tickets cost around £4.00 off-peak and the journey takes approximately 35 minutes.

From Manchester
If staying in Manchester, there are three convenient train stations (Oxford Road, Piccadilly and Victoria) with seven trains per hour to and from Bolton. Tickets cost around £3.70 off-peak and the journey takes approximately 20 minutes.

By Car:
From the North/Scotland
Bolton is most easily accessible from the North and Scotland via the M6 and M61. Leave the M61 at J5 and turn left onto the A58/A676. Follow this road for approx 2 miles to reach Bolton.

From Wales/West Midlands/South
Bolton is most easily accessible from Wales, the West Midlands and the South by the M6/M62 via Manchester. When heading north on the M6, at J21A take the M62 east towards Manchester, then J12 of the M60 clockwise towards Bury/Rochdale/Oldham, then J15 of the M60 for the M61, following the signs for the A666(M), towards Bolton. Leaving the A666 at the sign for Town Centre (North) will bring you out near the venue.

From the East
Bolton is most easily accessible from the East by the M62. When the M62 turns into the M60, heading west, leave at J15 for the M61 and follow the directions given above.
